

Hello I think you know who I am

But I'm not sure.

I hope this doesn't scare you that is not my intention's

I just wish if you were interested you could let me know somehow don't worry I would never bother you but I've seen you several times and I find you very attractive it bothers me that I can't speak to you but I'm really very shy when I have had the opportunity to say hi I was afraid for fear you wouldn't talk to me or think I was a crazy person I don't know what really made me do this because in person

I would probably be too shy to say anything at all but I just had to tell you how much I found you attractive for some reason I think about you a lot

I wonder what your name is, if you are single, how old you are, what you like to do, I know you like animals that's about all, because you have a dog if I have offended you I am sorry if so just throw this out and don't give it another thought if not give me a sign of some kind or call if you can figure out who I am but I think you have a small idea
