DISCOVERY
MEMORDANDUM
(Number 3)

NOW COMES the State of North Carolina and acknowledges receipt of Defendants' request for additional discovery. The State of North Carolina has previously provided copies of analysis of the arson burn time, and counsel requested additional information to complete their independent analysis of the fire. In response to that request, the State of North Carolina has prepared copies of the following documents, said copies are available to pick up at the District Attorney's Office.

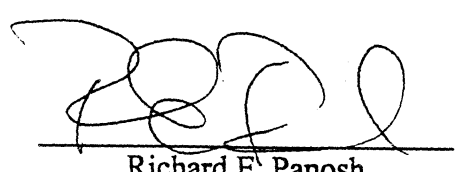

1. Advice of Rights, Theodore Mead Kimble.
2. Statement of Theodore Mead Kimble.
3. State Bureau of Investigation Crime Scene Report. (3 pages)
4. State Bureau of Investigation Crime Scene Supplemental report. (2 pages)
5. Guilford County Fire Marshall report. (10 pages)
6. Data sheet.

In the event that there are other specific requests, the State of North Carolina will voluntarily respond to each request.

The State will voluntarily provide any additional items of discovery and any exculpatory or Brady materials which come into the possession of the State of North Carolina. The State acknowledges its continuing duty to disclose any discoverable or exculpatory materials which come to the attention of the State.

Additionally, discovery of any items such as video tapes, photographs, audio tapes and diagrams presently held at the District Attorney's Office can be arranged by contacting the undersigned.
