MOTION
TO EXTEND TIME

NOW COMES the defendant above-named, through counsel, and respectfully prays the Court grant him an extension of time in which to file the Record on Appeal and shows the court:

1. The above-captioned cases were tried in Guilford County and the murder charge was tried capitally. The trial lasted some five weeks. The transcript was certified as delivered on 6 April 1999 and the time to file the record expires 35 days thence on 11 May 1999.
2. Appointed, undersigned counsel has experienced heavy workloads since receiving the transcript including jury trials in superior court. The transcript is 3,152 pages in length and the record will involve complex issues dealt with in pretrial motions as well as in-trial argument. Further, counsel has a pending capital trial which he must prepare for on an ongoing basis. Finally, counsel has conferred with Assistant District Attorney Richard Panosh who prosecuted this case for the State of North Carolina, and he has indicated that he has no objection to an extension of time.
3. For the reasons set forth above, counsel requests an extension of time for preparation of the record on appeal for 30 days to 10 June 1999.
4. Pursuant to Rule 27 of Rules of Appellate Procedure this Court is authorized to extend time for good cause shown.

WHEREFORE, the defendant respectfully prays for this court to order an extension of time to file the record on appeal to 10 June 1999.

This the 27 day of April, 1999.

THIS CAUSE having been heard by the undersigned Judge of Superior Court and counsel for the defendant having demonstrated good cause why an extension of time should be granted for filing the record on appeal;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the Defendant-appellant be granted an additional 30 days in which to file the record on appeal pursuant to Rule 27 of the North Carolina Rules of Appellate Procedure.

This the 26th day of April, 1999.

Superior Court Judge
