

On 7-15-97 I (A.R. Mauney) interviewed Patric Pardee at the Guilford County Sheriff's Department. At the time Mr. Pardee was considered to be a confidential informant. Patric Pardee at Guilford Detective Church was present.

During this interview the Patric Pardee stated that in early 1997 Ted Kimble told the Patric Pardee about Patricia death during a conversation they were having. Patric Pardee stated Ted told him that Ted and Ronnie had planned the murder and that is why he (Ted) went to work at Precision Fabrics in Greensboro, NC, so he could have an alibi by his time card. Ted also stated Ronnie (brother) had taken care of the murder because he (Ted) didn't want to be married anymore.

Mr. Pardee has requested that his name not be disclosed because he is afraid of Theodore Mead Kimble.

- Ted Kimble wrecked the truck once or twice – does not know about insurance claims on the truck.
- Ted Kimble owned the Camaro about 1 ½ years- had a couple of fender benders – A body shop off Bellemeade Street in Greensboro, NC may have fixed it.
- The insurance was paying to have the vehicle repainted – maybe front fender damage

- Ted said he married Patricia because he wanted to buy the business from Gary Lyles and he had to be married. Gary didn’t want Ted to marry Janet Blakley. Patricia had a good business head on her. Ted didn’t want to be married to Patricia because he was still in love with Janet.
- Ted said his brother Ronnie had taken care of the murder because he (Ted) didn’t want to be married anymore – “I heard a rumor right before Patricia was killed that they were trying to get a large policy on each other. Patricia didn’t really want it but I didn’t think too much about it.” After Patricia was killed, there was a big stink about the insurance because Ted said the policy was not in effect because of Patricia – Ted said he didn’t think he would get the money because Patricia’s physical had not been completed before her death.
