6. Offense: Homicide; On today's date and time I interviewed Steven Richardson at his place of employment after receiving a telephone call from him.

Mr. Richardson stated that he was Ted Kimble's sunday school teacher at South Elm St. Baptist Church. Steve said that after joining the church that Patricia was the only person that sent him a note welcoming him and he thought very highly of her. Steven said the reason he called was that he along with everyone else had doubts about Ted because of his disposition and things he has done since Patricia's murder. Steven said that Ted told him at a dinner the class was on that he had bought a new motorcycle and this was only a week after her death. On Tuesday night while at work 1-16-96 Steven noticed that Ted and Rhonda S. Field had entered his business from seeing them on the security monitor and it bothered him so bad that he was already seeing other women that he didn't even go out front. Steven watched as Ted and Rhonda ordered and as they hugged and kissed at the counter. Steven said that his newly hired cashier came back to him to ask a question about a problem she had with the cash register and after she returned to the front Ted was aware that he was in the back. Ted then turned to the security camera and stuck out his tongue. Steven said he felt like we needed to see the tape and be aware of Ted's actions in case we didn't know. The security tape was given to Sgt. DeBerry by Steven.

A. Steve Richardson - It might of bothered him then, but it didn't bother him to let me up for a $5000.00 loan. I was in his store on High Point Rd and he was in the process of moving to a new location on Weadover. I told him I wished I could help him but my hands were tied at the time. He only needed the money for a few weeks. I later said something to Patric Pardee about it. Patric offered to loan Steve the money. Steve said he had taken care of it.

I've known Steve for sometime. He's very two faced. Example his wife Lisa. Steve is divorced from his first wife. Before I married Patric I was in his shop and he was talking about how dumb and employee was he had. Next he's telling me how good looking she is in a bikini. A few weeks later their dating and later married. I know her and she didn't get smarter. He and Lisa are still married.

B - This was just over 3 months after Patric's death

C - Steve talked about buying himself a motorcycle. At the time he wanted one but couldn't afford it. Darrel Kid can verify this.
